

CORRELATION OF NATIONAL STANDARDS WITH INTERPERSONAL RELATIONSHIPS

The National Standards for Family & Consumer Sciences include 16 areas of study. Each area has a comprehensive standard describing the overall content, which is further detailed in several content standards. Each of these standards lists several competency statements describing the knowledge, skills, and practices expected of learners.

By studying the Interpersonal Relationships text, students will explore the competencies included in the National Standards. To help you see how this can be accomplished, following are correlations of the National Standards with Interpersonal Relationships. If you want to make sure you prepare students to meet these National Standards, these charts should be of interest to you.
